NEW IN THE SHOWROOMS

1. Wonder Woven

Superstar designer Stephen Burks looked to traditional Filipino weaving techniques when crafting the AHNDA collection for Dedon. Showroom, Boston, showroomboston.com

2. Retro Cool

Created by Dominique Imbert in 1968, the Gyrofocus fireplace was the first of its kind—a suspended fireplace that pivots 360 degrees. It still feels modern, doesn't it? Architectural Fireplaces of New England, East Hampstead, N.H., and Auburn, Mass., arc-fire.com

3. Be Like Jackie

Sister Parish and Albert Hadley used Tillet Textiles in the Kennedy White House, and now you can have them in your house. The line has just debuted at Webster & Company. Boston Design Center, webstercompany.com

4. Grub Hub

The Galley reimagines the kitchen sink. This work station makes meal prep, serving, and clean-up a breeze. Designer Bath and Salem Plumbing Supply, Beverly, Mass., designerbath.com

5. Table Top

Lay a table with Libeco's new Giulia collection and you'll feel like you're dining al fresco in Europe. Jack + Toba, Concord, Mass., jackandtoba.com
