

DESIGNER BATH AND SALEM PLUMBING SUPPLY CELEBRATES 70 YEARS Winner of the 2016 FAMILY BUSINESS AWARD

A third generation family owned business, Designer Bath and Salem Plumbing Supply is celebrating their 70th year in business. Family owned and operated since 1945; William Sevinor started a small plumbing supply business in a Salem store front. In 1971, William's son Ralph began working full-time for the company and saw an opportunity to expand by opening a showroom, which was the debut of Designer Bath; only the third decorative showroom in New England and the first wholesale plumbing supply house in Boston to open a showroom. In 1984, Designer Bath and Salem Plumbing Supply moved its showroom from Salem to 97 River Street in Beverly, where it still stands today.

Now the third generation Jason and Mindy, sit at the helm of Designer Bath and Salem Plumbing Supply and are honored the company received the 2016 Massachusetts Family Business Award, Medium Firms Category from the Northeastern University Center for Family Business. This award, which recognizes the achievements and contributions of Massachusetts-based, family-held businesses and entrepreneurs, is a worthy tribute to a family who has dedicated their lives to their trade and the communities where they work and live. Receiving a proclamation from Beverly Mayor Michael P. Cahill in recognition of the many years they've served their community is a testament to how well the Sevinor family and their company "family" is admired and appreciated.
